

Building Frankston's Future

We need to improve water quality at Beauty Park Lake

Have your say

We have drafted a proposed concept design where stormwater will be discharged into a bioretention basin, treated through natural processes, discharged into the lake and then out to the Bay. This will improve water quality, park amenity, flood mitigation and could be a source for irrigation in the future.

Share your feedback on the proposed concept design.
Visit engage.frankston.vic.gov.au by 13 September, 2021.